Speakers (Alphabetical order)

Kosuke Abe, Senior Investor Services Advisor, Japan, Invest in Canada

Kosuke joined Invest in Canada (IiC) in 2018 as Senior Investor Services Advisor for the Japanese market, after spending 15 years with BlackBerry QNX where he worked with distributors and sales teams. At IiC, Kosuke works with Canadian trade commissioners and partners to service and promote new and additional investment from Japan to Canada.

Jordan Gaw, Regional Director, Invest in Canada

Jordan Gaw is a Regional Director for the Prairies region at Invest in Canada where he promotes, facilitates and accelerates investment into Canada.

He's held leadership roles in the public and private sector with a focus on key industries such as: agribusiness, natural resources and digital technology each with a connection to international trade and investment. Jordan also serves as Vice-Chair Creative Saskatchewan.

Bill Greuel, CEO, Protein Industries Canada

Bill's combined passions for agriculture and innovation were the driving forces behind his career. Initially, this led him to private sector jobs at a biotech start-up, in the canola industry and at a large multi-national agriculture company. Bill then transitioned to the Saskatchewan Ministry of Agriculture, where he worked as a Provincial Oilseed Specialist, Research and Development Manager and Executive Director of Crops and Irrigation Branch before accepting the role of Assistant Deputy Minister, Regulatory and Innovation.

While growing up on a farm and throughout his career, Bill saw first-hand the opportunity for growth in Canada's agriculture industry. As CEO of Protein Industries Canada, Bill helps Canada's plant-protein sector realize this potential by leading the development of Protein Industry Canada's programs, resources and initiatives. His efforts have also helped make the Supercluster an instrumental player in the plant-protein landscape.

Paul Pryce, Managing Director, Japan Trade and Investment Office, Government of Saskatchewan

Paul Pryce serves as Managing Director of Saskatchewan's new Japan Trade and Investment Office, arriving in Tokyo in March 2021, and also serves as Counsellor at the Embassy of Canada to Japan. Previously, from 2014 to 2020, Paul served as Principal Advisor to the Consul General of Japan in Calgary, promoting Japanese interests in Saskatchewan, Alberta, Manitoba, Nunavut, and the Northwest Territories.

Earlier in his career, Paul held a variety of roles with the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, which included supporting ceasefire talks during the 2008 war in Georgia and assisting Montenegro in its first post-independence elections.

Marko Trivun, Senior Associate, Torys
